

Jay Caldwell

118 Tulip Tree Court

Waleska, GA 30183

Jay Caldwell was born and raised in Massachusetts. He got entirely sick of the snow and gray winters and moved down to Georgia in 2007 and has never looked back.

A former insurance professional for over fifteen years, he made a career change in 2014 to enter the IT space in Quality Assurance. He now manages a QA department for a startup company. Jay works from home, and is a full time resident of Lake Arrowhead.

He previously co-ran a volunteer community theatre company for 11 years and has a wealth of experience in event planning, volunteer coordination and more. Jay and his spouse, Rhonda, are new additions to Lake Arrowhead as of January 2022 but are already in love with their mountain community here.
